

CHAPTER-5

EQUAL CITIZENS CHARTER

Upon the way to seek the philosophy of justice hard shell of lively forefronts are exposed by the vagaries in livings. To give true meaning to justice the threshold of citizen charter which values the work culture of each individual is put to recourse which identifies the true virtues for the public folds. Thus equal citizen charter based on equality of all citizens under the law is very resourceful to demarcate best opportunities to all citizens. This equal citizen charter leads the judicial forefronts of the public in all fields of life and is the working thus living attribution count of all justice to be imparted to the citizens. The virtues of equal citizen charter leads to a justifiable society with values of justice in all walks of life. The follow up of judicial courses by equal citizen charter leads to peace and harmony in the society. The breakup of law often fails its course under emergency conditions but equal citizen charter has the grits to remedy any untoward circumstances in the society.

The equal citizen charter has multi facet advantages in the course of livings. The role of value culture is strengthened by equal citizen charter. The person who remains unidentified for long times is valued by the equal citizen charter for prospects in life by the democratic procedures entrenched in governance. The democratic procedures of governance gives value to the citizen for his talent which otherwise may be a subsiding perspective in an aristocratic rule. The equal citizen charter under a democratic rule gives strength to the value culture. The best wishes of the citizen can now be explored under a democratic rule which under other types of rule become a haphazard clause. The identification of values leads to virtuous folds to equal citizen charter and it manifests itself in wide acceptance to all value cultures.

The enforcement of equal citizen charter has the ramifications of vibrant society geared for gains on all fronts. The equal citizen charter leads to awareness about legal procedures and processes which can make a vibrant cast of a citizen in the society. To be able to seek justice upon lawful courses it is essential the citizen is fully apprised of legal procedures such that there is least misdemeanor in seeking justice. The justifiable folds of the society become widely expressive with enforcement of equal citizen charter which manifests in gains towards the knowledge of an ordinary citizen. The follow up of equal citizen charter gives thrust to justifiable forefronts in the societal norms and this manifest in legal procedures widely on stage for valuations with adaptations. The boat of legal processes runs on maximum speed with the enforcement of equal citizen charter.

The constitutional norms get strengthened by the equal citizen charter. The constitution is drafted for the interests of the people. When the constitutional procedures are able to gain grounds amidst public then processing levels in the society can be enhanced. The constitutional processes are blocked by superstitious postulates in the society. It is often noticed that on account of monetary dominance the development becomes a tributary of powerful individuals as these people gain the sympathy of masses to their personal folds. The purpose of development is to seek welfare of all citizens thus such situations are erroneous henceforth the citizens should look for personal welfare rather becoming dependent on others. The progressive work culture will manifest only when each individual seeks his personal welfare by being virtuous to all and not by becoming dependent on others. The equal citizen charter gives the necessary impetus to societal workouts which as such leads to independence from various forms of dominance in culture. The manifestation of equal citizen charter puts obstacles to illegal work forms and forces the will of all individuals to seek their livings on their own terms. The legality of procedures is withheld under equal citizen charter.

The progressive work culture is propelled from the gains to human rights for the citizens judged in correct measures and aptitude. The equal citizen charter guarantees human rights on various accounts thus leads the identity of the society, state and nation on humanistic approach to the developmental forefronts which has leading ramifications on the levels of growth in the society. The equation of growth needs human values inculcation in the society which may clause new forefronts for people making their front expressive in virtuous folds and helping grounds of growth in the society.

The irrationality's in social value culture ends with enforcement of equal citizen charter. The society leads by virtuous folds with expressive work culture in sound mind and vibrant cast of a citizen. The enquiry levels in the society improves which makes way for new forefronts on various accounts and has the potential thus zeal to overcome any irrationality impose on the society. Thus implications of these attributes manifest as citizen becomes highly courageous of personal folds and comes out as a judge or expert on social matters which makes for the foundations of the society thus nation strong. A fully conciliatory citizen is the aim of every nation.

The enforcement of equal citizen charter leads to complete accountability in all matters of the state and nation. The personal dictate of accountability is also put to test upon the testimony of justifiable courses. The accountability of various attires of public becomes expressive and gives strength to personal discourses which guides the destiny of judicial and justifiable courses. The equal citizen charter is thus a marvel in itself to judge the law and justice procedures for any citizen of the country.
